A BROOKLYN girl living at Stamford, Ct., man to take care of the young men who as it condemned others, and the public quarreled in paying her attentions. She has since—and in the public we include is a daughter of Thomas Kinsella and said men of the highest character, who live in Richard Basteed, jr., a friend of the family, had come to Mr. Kinsella's residence to spend the night. Theron Holly, a young man of Stamford, also called and spent the evening, and was doubtless annoyed by the fact that the girl and the "other feller" talked German, which he did not understand, and sang beautifully together, Mr. Busteed having a fine baritone voice. This was enough to make any fellow mad, Richard Basteed, jr., a friend of the family, This was enough to make any fellow mad, but as the young lady_further explained: We had some champagne and claret and

We had some champagne and claret and also some punch. The two men appeared to get along well together. I went up to my room to powder my face and Mr. Holly followed. He become abusive and put his hand behind him as if to draw a revolver. I went down and asked Mr. Busteed to get him out of my room. Holly was found on the floor, vomiting and feigning to be intoxicated. Mr. Busteed had gone to his valise and armed himself, and with his assistance I got Mr. Holly out of the room and down stairs. At the foot of the stairs Holly drew a Colt's revolver and leveling it at Mr. Busteed who was on the stairs, said, "— you, this is for you, Busteed" Mr. Busteed who was on the stairs, said, "— you, this is for you, Busteed" Mr. Busteed who was on the stairs, said, "— you, this is for you, "fired. FOR DEMOCRATS TO READ. udge Jeremiah Black's Vindication o en in February, 1878 From the beginning of the investigation icerning Mr. Ames' use of the Credit Mobilier, I believe that General Garfield was free from all guilty connection with that business. This opinion was founded not merely on my confidence in his integrity, but on some special knowledge of his case. I may have told you all about it in conversation, but I desire now to repeat it by way of reminder. I assert unhesitatingly that, whatever General Garfield may have done or foreborne to do, he acted in profound ignor-

General Garfield may have done or foreborne to do, he acted in profound ignorance of the nature and character of the thing which Mr. Ames was proposing to sell. He had not the slightest suspicion that he was to be taken into a ring organized for the purpose of defrauding the spublic, nor did he know that the stock was in any manner connected with anything which came, or could come, within the Legislative jurisdiction of Congress.
The case against him lacks the scienter which alone constitutes guilt.
In the winter of 1869-70 I told General affeld of the fact that his name was on Ames' list; that Ames charged him with being one of his distributees; explained to him the character, origin and objects of the Credit Mobilier; pointed out the connection it had with Congressional legislation, and showed him how impossible it was for a member of Congress to held stock in it without bringing his private interests in conflict with his public duty.
That all this was to him a perfectly new revelation I am as sure as I can be of such a lact, or of any fact which is capable of the told me the whole story of Train's offer to him and Ames' subsequent solicitation and his own action in the premises, much as he details it to the committee. I do not undertake to reproduce the conversation, but the effect of it all was to convince me thoroughly that when he listened to Ames he was perfectly unconacious of anything evil. I watched carefully

The Doctors Vielding.

Ever since Prof. Green wrote to the Medical Record advising physicians everywhere to use the Safe Kidney and Liver Ourse in their practice, it has been gaining in favor with the profession. They can find nothing which is a substitute for it. R. Caulkins, M. D., of Rochester, N. Y., says he would now prescribe it to all who are affileded with serious kidney and liver diseases.
